1. Coverage starts from the time the policy was incepted by the Employer or their Authorised Representative on the first day of cover
2. The policy covers all workers employed by the entity named on this certificate while undertaking its primary business activity or any other activities ancillary to its primary business activity as required.
3. Number of workers includes contractors/deemed workers.
4. Total wages/units estimated for the current period.

Important information

Principals relying on this certificate should:

- ensure a statement under section 175B of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 (NSW) is attached
- ensure proper workers compensation insurance is in place
- compare the number of workers on site to the average number of workers estimated
- ensure that the wages are reasonable to cover the labour component of the work being performed
- confirm that the description of the industry/industries noted is appropriate

If the principal contractor has failed to obtain a statement or has accepted a statement where there was reason to believe it was false, they may become liable for any outstanding premium of the sub-contractor.

Did you know that an excess, equivalent to the first week of compensable payments, may be payable if notification of a claim is not provided to your insurer within five calendar days of when you became aware of the injury.

Yours faithfully

Statement of coverage

This certificate issued on 15 July 2024 is a Certificate of Currency, which provides cover under the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 for:

- (a) the employer's legal liability for compensation; and
- (b) the employer's legal liability for damages.

The amount of insurance under the workers' compensation scheme is unlimited subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 and the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Regulation 2014 and the employer's compliance with their requirements. In some instances, non-compliance can jeopardise an employer's insurance cover but will not prevent an injured worker from being compensated pursuant to the Act.

This Certificate of Currency is issued for the insurance period from 08 July 2024 to 30 June 2025.

This Certificate of Currency is current on the date of issue. The employer's insurance policy will remain current while they continue to make premium instalment payments or premium is fully paid.
